

prominent Union General among them, will determine to accept and defend an action which offends the sense of law and of constitutional liberty.

Let the question be put fairly before the American people, and there is no reason to fear the answer. Yours very truly,

JAMES HAY.

EASTERN SENTIMENT.

THE REPUBLICAN PROSPECTS DAILY GROWING BRIGHTER.

A TRIBUNE reporter, hearing that Mr. Washington Hesling had returned to Chicago after a month's vacation spent at the East, called on his office yesterday to see whether he had any news, and inquired as to his political way during his absence. In a few words, he said, "I am a man to a question as to where he had been. Mr. Hesling stated that he had spent the time of his absence mainly in Connecticut, though he had been at New York a few days.

"What do the Republicans in Connecticut think will be the result in their State this fall?"

"They are very hopeful," said Mr. Hesling. "The Democrats are confident for four years, but the Republicans are confident that things have changed greatly in their favor. The State Administration is with them, and while it was against them in the election, it has also been against them in many suits, even though charges, and they will probably discover their mistake when too late."

CRIMINAL NEWS.

A Desperate Miner Makes Things Lively in Leadville.

By Shooting and Mortally Wounding Three Policemen.

Lynch-Law Likely to Be Meted Out in His Case.

Miscellaneous Misdeeds at Various Other Points.

A HORRIBLE OUTRAGE.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune. LEAVENWORTH, Kas., July 17.—The news has reached here of a hellish outrage perpetrated upon a helpless woman at Hunnewell, the present terminus of the Southern Kansas & Western Railroad. Arriving alone at Wellington from the East, on her way to Fort Reno, she was advised by a man who succeeded in ingratiating himself into her confidence to go by way of Hunnewell, and at Hunnewell she was decoyed into a saloon under pretense of being lame, lashed to a chair, where she was flogged, and then taken out upon the prairie and outraged in broad daylight by eight men, each naked and insensible in the burning sun, and so remained until found and rescued. The names of the perpetrators of the affair are not yet known, but there is no news yet of their capture.

A BIGAMIST.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune. MILWAUKEE, July 17.—Gen. George H. Donnelly, a molder of iron, has just come to this city here to which the criminal is known. He is a molder of iron. He was married in that city three years ago, deserted his wife a year later, came to Milwaukee and married a young woman of Oconomowoc. His wife found him a week ago, and he agreed to live with her. They fitted up rooms and lived together until last night, when he decamped. With No. 3 at present staying at Oconomowoc, Mrs. Donnelly found a letter from her husband revealing his secret. Donnelly showed his heartlessness by taking every cent of money from her. She was furnished transportation to Terre Haute to-day.

A MURDEROUS MINER.

DENVER, Colo., July 17.—The News' Leadville special this afternoon says a miner named Baker entered Manville's hardware-store to collect some mining assessments. He demanded of the clerk a revolver out of a showcase, and being refused, pulled a revolver out of his pocket and threatened everybody in the store. Policeman John Corbett attempted to arrest him. Baker told him to stand back. Corbett rushed at Baker and Baker fired, wounding him mortally. Then he rushed up to the store door and shot Stewart, who fired, fatally wounding Stewart and slightly wounding another policeman. Baker was then overpowered and jailed. The policemen are holding a lamb trial, and probably Baker will be lynched before morning.

NOTES.

HANCOCK'S LOYALTY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune. LINCOLN, Neb., July 17.—Reporters have been busy for the past twenty-four hours interviewing Judge Cobb, formerly of Wisconsin, concerning the matter set forth in the correspondence of "O. K." in THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE implicating Gen. Hancock's loyalty after the arrival of McClellan after the re-taking of Harper's Ferry. The "O. K." has uniformly declined to make any statement until he is requested to do so. All, though regarding the necessity, he will tell what he knows.

AN ALLEGED CASE OF BULLDOGGING.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 17.—The Treasury Department is informed that A. F. Bissell, Inspector of Customs, has been compelled to leave his post of duty at Velasco, Brazil. The reason given is that he was a speaker at a Republican meeting. He says he was informed that a party of twenty-five men had been selected to take him from his house during the night and to have him, and that he will grow weaker and weaker month by month between now and November.

WATSEKA, ILL.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

WATSEKA, Ill., July 17.—The most enthusiastic Republican meeting held this day in De Witt County took place to-day in the town of Tipton. A large crowd was present, and the speakers were unanimous. During the exercises a Garfield and Arthur pole was raised with prolonged cheers. The Republicans are wide awake, and will carry De Witt County by a large majority this fall.

HOME AGAIN.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 17.—The Hon. W. W. H. Campbell, attorney for New York to-day, apparently well pleased with his trip, being asked how the political situation in the East impressed him, he replied: "Oh! an attorney as could be desired. I am not interested in politics. Never say it seemed to be all one way. I think I saw hundreds of Democratic flags out where I saw one Republican."

THE INVADERS.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Gen. Pope telegraphed to-day that he had sent 100 of his followers, and asked for instructions as follows: "Am I to understand that the Government wishes this gang turned over to the United States Marshal at Fort Worth, Ark., for trial?"

The Secretary of War will order the delivery of Payne and his men to the civil authorities for safe custody, and, in the meantime, some new questions are involved in the case, and many difficulties are presented. Atwood George for his opinion as to the mode of civil prosecution to be instituted against them.

A NEW SCALP.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Among the patients at St. Luke's Hospital is Miss Lucy Osborne, a young woman who carries on her head an artificial scalp. It has taken six years to construct this scalp. The material for building the scalp has been furnished by 100 volunteers, and over 14,000 different pieces have been used in its construction. The woman born belongs to New Bedford, Conn., and lost her natural scalp by the catching of its luxuriant hairs in the revolving shaft of a button factory where she worked.

SUICIDE.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DETROIT, Mich., July 17.—The most enthusiastic Republican meeting held this day in Wayne County came into this section a few days ago with $1,400 which they intended to invest in horses. A couple of nights since they slept in the barn of Joseph Morton, here and there, and away to find their means missing. The police then found they were followed from their home by the thief or thieves.

FROM CHICAGO (?)

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 17.—John Sutton, of Chicago, had a pocketbook stolen from his coat at the Kirby House this evening. It contained a check for $300 and other valuable papers.

DEATH SENTENCE.

PHILADELPHIA, July 17.—Patrick Hayes, who killed his wife last March, was sentenced to death by Judge Eelock this morning.

CANADA.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

HULL, July 17.—The men of the Toronto Branch of the Knights of Columbus have paid two months' back pay, up to the 1st of May, the balance being secured. The employees will resume work on Monday. This afternoon the pay-car passed along the different branches of the line, and the men received the same treatment as their Toronto brethren. The strike was conducted in such a manner as reflected credit on the men, no overt act being committed.

QUEBEC, July 17.—

The Albion, for Montreal, with a tow of booms, came in collision with the steamer Margaret, for Quebec. The Albion was almost cut in two and sank. No one injured.

THE INVADERS.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Gen. Pope telegraphed to-day that he had sent 100 of his followers, and asked for instructions as follows:

"Am I to understand that the Government wishes this gang turned over to the United States Marshal at Fort Worth, Ark., for trial?"

RAIDING INDIANS.

DEADWOOD, Dak., July 17.—Reports were brought to this city this morning that 500 Indians appeared near Spearfish last night and had a dance. They had been engaged in killing cattle. Spearfish is fifteen miles from the city. Several parties have organized and started out.

PEDESTRIANISM.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 17.—At 9 p. m. the pedestrian score of the eighth day stood: Howard, 345 miles; Young, 338; S. Donley, 255; Tolson, 34; Lee, 277.

In the twenty-four hours' march McNamee had run 30 miles; Guerrero, 101; Switzer, 200.

while Americans cannot, the former could not cross the Atlantic at all. It may be, and probably is, necessary to make cargoes from Canada pay a greater proportion of the cost of the double voyage than will be paid by the Indians. The transportation was larger, but the difference between $21 and $20 is too great to be accounted for wholly on such a hypothesis. The steamship company is acting against their own interests in making such exorbitant charges, and they will probably discover their mistake when too late.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

PORT WAYNE, Ind., July 17.—Osborne, who was lately arrested for bringing stolen goods into Canada, was not present when his case was called in the Police Court, and was not the largest conviction ever held by the party in this country. The following nomination of the members of the Legislative Assembly:

C. Tressell, H. C. Shull, and William Goheen; Sheriff, Sol Bash; Treasurer, C. A. Kampf; Commissioner, L. M. Rogers. Speeches were made by Gen. Wager Swayne, of Toledo, and others. The Republicans are united, harmonious, and enthusiastic as never before in the history of the county.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 17.—The Governor and ex-Governors of the State are represented on the list of speakers by the names of Tilden, Dix, Robinson, Hoffman, Seymour, and others. The Representatives, C. A. Tressell, H. C. Shull, and William Goheen; Sheriff, Sol Bash; Treasurer, C. A. Kampf; Commissioner, L. M. Rogers. Speeches were made by Gen. Wager Swayne, of Toledo, and others. The Republicans are united, harmonious, and enthusiastic as never before in the history of the county.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DETROIT, Mich., July 17.—The Michigan State Convention met here to-day, and was the largest convention ever held by the party in this country. The following nomination of the members of the Legislative Assembly:

C. Tressell, H. C. Shull, and William Goheen; Sheriff, Sol Bash; Treasurer, C. A. Kampf; Commissioner, L. M. Rogers. Speeches were made by Gen. Wager Swayne, of Toledo, and others. The Republicans are united, harmonious, and enthusiastic as never before in the history of the county.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 17.—The Governor and ex-Governors of the State are represented on the list of speakers by the names of Tilden, Dix, Robinson, Hoffman, Seymour, and others. The Representatives, C. A. Tressell, H. C. Shull, and William Goheen; Sheriff, Sol Bash; Treasurer, C. A. Kampf; Commissioner, L. M. Rogers. Speeches were made by Gen. Wager Swayne, of Toledo, and others. The Republicans are united, harmonious, and enthusiastic as never before in the history of the county.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DETROIT, Mich., July 17.—The Michigan State Convention met here to-day, and was the largest convention ever held by the party in this country. The following nomination of the members of the Legislative Assembly:

C. Tressell, H. C. Shull, and William Goheen; Sheriff, Sol Bash; Treasurer, C. A. Kampf; Commissioner, L. M. Rogers. Speeches were made by Gen. Wager Swayne, of Toledo, and others. The Republicans are united, harmonious, and enthusiastic as never before in the history of the county.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DETROIT, Mich., July 17.—The Michigan State Convention met here to-day, and was the largest convention ever held by the party in this country. The following nomination of the members of the Legislative Assembly:

C. Tressell, H. C. Shull, and William Goheen; Sheriff, Sol Bash; Treasurer, C. A. Kampf; Commissioner, L. M. Rogers. Speeches were made by Gen. Wager Swayne, of Toledo, and others. The Republicans are united, harmonious, and enthusiastic as never before in the history of the county.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DETROIT, Mich., July 17.—The Michigan State Convention met here to-day, and was the largest convention ever held by the party in this country. The following nomination of the members of the Legislative Assembly:

C. Tressell, H. C. Shull, and William Goheen; Sheriff, Sol Bash; Treasurer, C. A. Kampf; Commissioner, L. M. Rogers. Speeches were made by Gen. Wager Swayne, of Toledo, and others. The Republicans are united, harmonious, and enthusiastic as never before in the history of the county.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DETROIT, Mich., July 17.—The Michigan State Convention met here to-day, and was the largest convention ever held by the party in this country. The following nomination of the members of the Legislative Assembly:

C. Tressell, H. C. Shull, and William Goheen; Sheriff, Sol Bash; Treasurer, C. A. Kampf; Commissioner, L. M. Rogers. Speeches were made by Gen. Wager Swayne, of Toledo, and others. The Republicans are united, harmonious, and enthusiastic as never before in the history of the county.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DETROIT, Mich., July 17.—The Michigan State Convention met here to-day, and was the largest convention ever held by the party in this country. The following nomination of the members of the Legislative Assembly:

C. Tressell, H. C. Shull, and William Goheen; Sheriff, Sol Bash; Treasurer, C. A. Kampf; Commissioner, L. M. Rogers. Speeches were made by Gen. Wager Swayne, of Toledo, and others. The Republicans are united, harmonious, and enthusiastic as never before in the history of the county.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DETROIT, Mich., July 17.—The Michigan State Convention met here to-day, and was the largest convention ever held by the party in this country. The following nomination of the members of the Legislative Assembly:

C. Tressell, H. C. Shull, and William Goheen; Sheriff, Sol Bash; Treasurer, C. A. Kampf; Commissioner, L. M. Rogers. Speeches were made by Gen. Wager Swayne, of Toledo, and others. The Republicans are united, harmonious, and enthusiastic as never before in the history of the county.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DETROIT, Mich., July 17.—The Michigan State Convention met here to-day, and was the largest convention ever held by the party in this country. The following nomination of the members of the Legislative Assembly:

C. Tressell, H. C. Shull, and William Goheen; Sheriff, Sol Bash; Treasurer, C. A. Kampf; Commissioner, L. M. Rogers. Speeches were made by Gen. Wager Swayne, of Toledo, and others. The Republicans are united, harmonious, and enthusiastic as never before in the history of the county.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DETROIT, Mich., July 17.—The Michigan State Convention met here to-day, and was the largest convention ever held by the party in this country. The following nomination of the members of the Legislative Assembly:

C. Tressell, H. C. Shull, and William Goheen; Sheriff, Sol Bash; Treasurer, C. A. Kampf; Commissioner, L. M. Rogers. Speeches were made by Gen. Wager Swayne, of Toledo, and others. The Republicans are united, harmonious, and enthusiastic as never before in the history of the county.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DETROIT, Mich., July 17.—The Michigan State Convention met here to-day, and was the largest convention ever held by the party in this country. The following nomination of the members of the Legislative Assembly:

C. Tressell, H. C. Shull, and William Goheen; Sheriff, Sol Bash; Treasurer, C. A. Kampf; Commissioner, L. M. Rogers. Speeches were made by Gen. Wager Swayne, of Toledo, and others. The Republicans are united, harmonious, and enthusiastic as never before in the history of the county.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DETROIT, Mich., July 17.—The Michigan State Convention met here to-day, and was the largest convention ever held by the party in this country. The following nomination of the members of the Legislative Assembly:

C. Tressell, H. C. Shull, and William Goheen; Sheriff, Sol Bash; Treasurer, C. A. Kampf; Commissioner, L. M. Rogers. Speeches were made by Gen. Wager Swayne, of Toledo, and others. The Republicans are united, harmonious, and enthusiastic as never before in the history of the county.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DETROIT, Mich., July 17.—The Michigan State Convention met here to-day, and was the largest convention ever held by the party in this country. The following nomination of the members of the Legislative Assembly:

C. Tressell, H. C. Shull, and William Goheen; Sheriff, Sol Bash; Treasurer, C. A. Kampf; Commissioner, L. M. Rogers. Speeches were made by Gen. Wager Swayne, of Toledo, and others. The Republicans are united, harmonious, and enthusiastic as never before in the history of the county.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DETROIT, Mich., July 17.—The Michigan State Convention met here to-day, and was the largest convention ever held by the party in this country. The following nomination of the members of the Legislative Assembly:

C. Tressell, H. C. Shull, and William Goheen; Sheriff, Sol Bash; Treasurer, C. A. Kampf; Commissioner, L. M

The Tribune.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

BY MAIL—IN ADVANCE—POSTAGE PREPAID.
Daily edition, one year ..... $12.00
Parts of a year, per month ..... 1.00
Daily, per month ..... 12.00
Parts of a year, per month ..... 1.00
Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, per year ..... 6.00
Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, per year ..... 3.00
Saturday or Sunday, 16-page edition, per year ..... 3.50
Any other edition, per year ..... 2.00

WEEKLY EDITION—POSTPAID.

Dra copy, per year ..... $1.00
One copy, per week ..... 12.00
Specimen copies sent free.

Give Post-Office address in full, including State and County.

Remittances may be made either by draft, express, Post-Office order, or registered letter, at our risk.

TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.

Daily, delivered, Sunday excepted, 25 cents per week.

Daily, delivered, Monday included, 20 cents per week.

Address: THE TRIBUNE COMPANY,
Corner Madison and Dearborn-st., Chicago, Ill.

POSTAGE.

Entered at the Post-Office at Chicago, Ill., as Second-Class Matter.

For the benefit of our readers who desire to send money to the Tribune, the mail, we give the following rates of postage:

Domestic ..... 1 cent
Foreign ..... 2 cents
Night and Two Page Paper ..... 2 cents
Night and Two Page Paper ..... 2 cents
Night and Two Page Paper ..... 2 cents

TRIBUNE BRANCH OFFICES.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE has established branch offices for the receipt of subscriptions and advertising money.

NEW YORK—Room 22 Tribune Building. F. T. McPADEN, Manager.

GLASGOW, Scotland—Allan's American News, 10, Strand.

LONDON, Eng.—American Exchange, 46 Strand.

HENRY F. GILLIS, Agent.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—199 F Street.

SOCIETY MEETINGS.

THOS. J. TURNER LODGE, No. 69, F. & A. M., Vice President, and other prominent members and friends, will be present on Tuesday evening, July 23, at 8 o'clock, at the Tivoli, to witness the grand opening of the new Tivoli River Drive, and the grand opening of the new Tivoli.

W. M. STANTON, Secretary.

THE CHICAGO ENCLAVE, ENCLAVE, No. 1, U. S. Hall corner Clark and Washington-st., will meet next Friday evening, July 23. All persons interested in the progress of the cause are invited. Visiting Patriarchs cordially invited. By order of L. R. BAIN, C. P. E. D. REINERS, Secretary.

BERNARD COMMANDERY, No. 33, F. T.—Stated Convalescent Wednesday evening, July 17, at 8 o'clock, at the Tivoli, to witness the grand opening of the new Tivoli River Drive. Visiting Patriarchs cordially invited. By order of J. O. DICKERSON, Secretary.

FAIRVIEW CHAPTER, No. 13, R. A. M.—Hall corner, Thirty-seventh and Cass, Grove-avenue, Convalescent Thursday evening, July 18, at 8 o'clock, to witness the grand opening of the new Tivoli River Drive. Visiting Patriarchs cordially invited. By order of L. S. TIFFANY, Recorder.

CHICAGO CHAPTER, No. 12, R. A. M.—Regular Convalescent Monday, July 15, at 8 o'clock, at the Tivoli, to witness the grand opening of the new Tivoli River Drive. Visiting Patriarchs cordially invited. By order of the M. E. H. P. ELI SMITH, Secretary.

SUNDAY, JULY 18, 1880.

A PHILADELPHIA wife-murderer has been sentenced to be hanged.

It is said that the Pope is much displeased at Cardinal Nina's action on the Belgian question.

The Arabs who attacked the British gunboat on the Euphrates a few days ago have been arrested.

NEGOTIATIONS for a supply of coal and provisions for the Turkish Mediterranean squadron are in progress.

THE Hon. Horace Maynard, recently appointed Postmaster-General, left Constantinople Friday for this country.

Most of the expelled French Jesuits are taking up their residence in Spain. Several members of the Order have left for the Philippine Islands.

LECTION riots have occurred in the Brazilian provinces. About twenty people were killed, and many were wounded.

It will doubtless be interesting to many readers to learn that Prince Günter I. of Schwartburg-Sonderhausen has abdicated in favor of his son.

A BALTIMORE furniture factory was burned yesterday, and sixteen adjacent buildings were damaged. The loss is estimated at $40,000. A woman was fatally injured.

CHAIRMAN JEWELL states that Republican tickets will be placed in the field in every Southern State, and the campaign there would be conducted actively and aggressively.

The weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

At the request of the Sultan some members of the Prussian Civil Service have been sent to Turkey to aid in reforming the civil administration of the country. Hitherto such invasions have been almost invariably sent to English civil servants. The change is rendered significant, and is intended to be of great importance.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Yorkshire, Berkshire, and Nottinghamshire are now under water, owing to the overflow of the rivers. Railway travel is much interrupted, and the roads are nearly impassable. The North, standing, prices are very high for all kinds of farm produce. Mr. Gladstone has already reduced his rents 30 per cent. The prospect before the farmer is not by means a cheering one; it is so for the most ordinary ever held in Mexico.

THE weather in England just now is very unfavorable to the crops. It is hot and sultry, with frequent thunder and rain storms. The result of Gloucestershire work done by his laborers at harvest time, and the women have been very grateful for the change, because, as Sir Philip says, they are able to save more money than formerly. Supplying cold tea to his friends costs Sir Philip 25 cents a year, and he considers the time spent. Many other substances and beer are used. "Mead, under the thinness of table beer," is drunk, the favorite liquor of the harvester is porter-beer. Then, in other places, a weak gruel of oat-meal and water, kept in a cool place, is found most refreshing and palatable. On the whole, it seems to be pretty well established that beer isn't a good beverage to work on in England.

"The real head of the opium combination is well-known," says the New York Tribune. But the Tribune does not say who it is. Can it be Jay Gould? It cannot be Jim Keene, for on this point the Tribune says:

Reports have been circulated at various times that James Keene, the Boston manufacturer of opium, when the combination was first formed, offered his interest to Mr. Keene, but it was declined. He was told that he would not be paid $400,000 for his interest. He is said to have replied that not even $400,000 would "corner" wheat.

That the future price of opium depends almost wholly upon the will of a few speculators is generally admitted by persons engaged in the business. Turkish opium must be had, and the price will highly affect the consumption. To a small extent manufacturers may supply it in place with Persian and East Indian drugs; but in spite of all their efforts the demand for Smyrna opium will remain probably about the same.

This cable dispatch stating that the library of Theodor Mommsen at Charlottenburg, near Berlin, has been destroyed by fire calls forth this comment from the Boston Advertiser:

Mommsen is generally known as the most authority on the history of the Roman Empire. It is not necessary for that, but discusses every question in a cool and quiet manner. It says: "There are certain persons that seem to have lost, either in consequence of the heat, or their eagerness to serve party purposes, all prudence. If they belong to the Republican party, they declare all Democrats confirmed thieves and rascals. Are they readers of the Roman Empire? and even then they do not suppose that it is the most shameful manner possible. If we belonged to the latter, we should speak of Garfield's letter of acceptance in the following style: It is the most contemptible, infamous, rascally document ever written by any perjured scoundrel in order to catch unsuspecting people and their votes. The scoundrel who wrote it, etc. etc. But we have not born in under such a crazy star—on the contrary, Democratic readers of the Americas are too numerous, and permit us to explain matters and things as they are. We are not, so we say, a nation that Mr. Garfield's letter of acceptance is a document prepared with a great deal of care and skill in it there are no fanatical expressions, nothing of a political nature, nothing of a personal nature. Everything is discussed in the most plausible, yet attractive, manner, and if the Republicans succeed to get into power, they will be obliged to send their best and ablest men in the field. It will not do to appear to the passions of the independent voters that we are not to be beaten. Therefore, we must convince them of the justice of our cause. The leading thought of the regular politicians is to make the public believe that we have the offices?" The leading thought of business men, however, is a different one. It is this: "It is a great opportunity for us to increase." And so should it be. The revival of business, of trade in all its branches, of our industry, of our agriculture, of our manufacture, and honest payment of our debts—all of these questions should be the basis of discussion during the next few months.

The New York Standard-Zeitung (D.) is evidently much frightened about the State of Indiana, and the fact that Mr. Schurz will stamp it with his name for acceptance. The General has been tendered the Presidency of the American branch of the Democratic party, and it is said he will accept it at the end of his term, and English used to the Presidency, would "Annie Fox" appear upon the stage. The Lady of the House?

The Gazette replies as follows:

We do not know whether Miss Fox would reign in the White House in the event of Mr. English's acceptance. The people who are naturally devoted upon her; but people have prejudices, and Mr. English might share them.

DAVID NEAL the American artist, so well known in Chicago, has discovered a musical prodigy in his own son, aged 9 years. The boy was 8 years and 4 months old, without ever having had any instruction. The music expresses exactly his temperament, as it is a natural gift. He has been taught by Mr. Garfield, who has consulted the very best authorities in musical matters, and there has been but one expression of astonishment that a child of that age, without the least knowledge of the laws of harmony, could produce anything so correct in form.

The New York Herald prints the following dispatch from Galena, relating to Gen. Grant's future movements:

GALENA, Ill., July 15.—It is authoritatively stated here that Gen. Grant will return to the West before the 1st of August, settle his affairs, and then go to New York, where he is to remain until the election of President. The election is open for his acceptance. The General has been tendered the Presidency of the American branch of the Democratic party, and it is said he will accept it at the end of his term, and English used to the Presidency, would "Annie Fox" appear upon the stage. The Lady of the House?

The corrected returns from thirty-two counties in Illinois (including Morgan and) received returns from Edinburgh, interposed by telegraph 25,000, show a net gain in population of 10,740. The following additional returns have been received:

	1859.	1860.	Gains.
Douglas.	13,484.	13,841.	357.
Henry.	13,484.	13,841.	357.
Tazewell.	27,903.	29,876.	1,973.
Warren.	23,174.	23,300.	874.
Net gain in four counties.	5,013.
Net gain in thirty-six counties.	11,474.

The rice crop is going to smash. It was said a short time ago that the cotton crop was in danger, but this seems to be an erroneous report. The New York Financial and Commercial Chronicle estimates the value of cotton this year at about 10 per cent more than last year's average. It adds 5 to 10 per cent upon an account of the fertilizers used on poor lands, and the more the average quality of the new lands cultivated. The Chronicle predicts another "great crop" of cotton.

FORWARD investigation of the circumstances of the late duel in South Carolina, in which Shannon was a wholly innocent victim of the code. He had given no offense. It was not he, but his associate, who drew up the legal document charging fraud upon the state of Cass. He acted only in a professional capacity, and was concerned in the case chiefly as counsel. If the rule that called him to account prevailed in this section of the country some of the leading lawyers in Chicago would now be looking for other situations.

THE NEW YORK grocer-clerks have issued a statement in which they say that they have been successful in inducing almost all grocers to close at 6 o'clock p.m., except on Saturdays, to "humble" appeal to the public in the name of humanity, to shorten the day, and to give the public time to interest itself about clerks. What it comes to lower is the price of flour and sugar.

A very estimable subscriber writes:

To the Editor of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.—Carcano, July 17.—The TRIBUNE will bear out all allusion to T. H. Hancock, the fastidious New York, I will pay double price for my subscription.

If a "Subscriber" will not only pay double price for his own paper, but single price for all the other papers I wish to read about T. H. Hancock, THE TRIBUNE will consider the proposal.

DR. DANIEL TYLER COOT, who has just left a bequest of $10,000 to Yale College, graduated in 1855. He was for fifty years a practicing physician in Boston. Not long ago he removed to New York, returning from active life.

THE Memphis Avalanche desires to have its name to be known as the cleanest city on the continent, and to show all that the power of man can do to make Memphis proof against yellow-fever has been done."

ROCHEFORT declares any compromise between him and Gambetta impossible. Kearney also declares that any compromise between him and President Hayes is impossible. Rochefort is the Keassey of France.

LIGHTNING struck the shaft of the Ricas colliery, and 150 men were smothered and perished. There ought to be a better lightning conductor over the Ricas shaft.

MR. HALSTEAD objects to ice-water. How must his feelings be revolted by Tanner, who was on nothing else.

PERSONALS.

Prince Leopold has sent word that he cannot fulfil his engagements for the next two weeks on account of a sprain of his Imperial right ankle. He probably considers a lame excuse.

Caldwell H. Colt, heir to the estate of Col. Caldwell Colt, the inventor of the revolver bearing his name, left Hartford, Conn., last Saturday with a four-in-hand and dog-cart to drive to Newport. Upon reaching Colchester one of his horses died from the effects of the intense heat and overdriving, and another was ruined from the same cause. Mule colts are seldom of much account.

The just-too-nice-for-anything personal column of the New York Post announces that "Mr. Richmond, the celebrated pitcher of the Worcester and Brown Base-Ball Club, will be a member of the Harvard Medical School next season."

It must be extremely gratifying to Mr. Chung How, the late Chinese Ambassador to Russia, that he has been called to the rank of general. Then, in other places, a weak gruel of oat-meal and water, kept in a cool place, is found most refreshing and palatable. On the whole, it seems to be pretty well established that beer isn't a good beverage to work on in England.

"The real head of the opium combination is well-known," says the New York Tribune. But the Tribune does not say who it is. Can it be Jay Gould? It cannot be Jim Keene, for on this point the Tribune says:

Reports have been circulated at various times that James Keene, the Boston manufacturer of opium, when the combination was first formed, offered his interest to Mr. Keene, but it was declined. He was told that he would not be paid $400,000 for his interest. He is said to have replied that not even $400,000 would "corner" wheat.

That the future price of opium depends almost wholly upon the will of a few speculators is generally admitted by persons engaged in the business. Turkish opium must be had, and the price will highly affect the consumption. To a small extent manufacturers may supply it in place with Persian and East Indian drugs; but in spite of all their efforts the demand for Smyrna opium will remain probably about the same.

This cable dispatch stating that the library of Theodor Mommsen at Charlottenburg, near Berlin, has been destroyed by fire calls forth this comment from the Boston Advertiser:

Mommsen is generally known as the most authority on the history of the Roman Empire. It is not necessary for that, but discusses every question in a cool and quiet manner. It says: "There are certain persons that seem to have lost, either in consequence of the heat, or their eagerness to serve party purposes, all prudence. If they belong to the Republican party, they declare all Democrats confirmed thieves and rascals. Are they readers of the Roman Empire? and even then they do not suppose that it is the most shameful manner possible. If we belonged to the latter, we should speak of Garfield's letter of acceptance in the following style: It is the most contemptible, infamous, rascally document ever written by any perjured scoundrel in order to catch unsuspecting people and their votes. The scoundrel who wrote it, etc. etc. But we have not born in under such a crazy star—on the contrary, Democratic readers of the Americas are too numerous, and permit us to explain matters and things as they are. We are not, so we say, a nation that Mr. Garfield's letter of acceptance is a document prepared with a great deal of care and skill in it there are no fanatical expressions, nothing of a political nature, nothing of a personal nature. Everything is discussed in the most plausible, yet attractive, manner, and if the Republicans succeed to get into power, they will be obliged to send their best and ablest men in the field. It will not do to appear to the passions of the independent voters that we are not to be beaten. Therefore, we must convince them of the justice of our cause. The leading thought of the regular politicians is to make the public believe that we have the offices?" The leading thought of business men, however, is a different one. It is this: "It is a great opportunity for us to increase."

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club here assembled, do believe in the wisdom, usefulness, and patriotism of the Republican party as the government of the United States, and the free and enlightened Nation; and further

Received: That we, the members of the Seventh Senatorial Club

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Another Day of Advancing Quotas for Wall Street Stocks.

Demand for Investment Securities—Foreign Exchange Heavy.

Light Currency Movement—Situation at the Chicago Banks.

The Produce Markets Less Active—Provisions Slow but Steadier.

More Strength in Spot Grain, with Steadiness in Futures.

FINANCIAL.

Stocks were not active, but prices advanced moderately, and the market closed with a look suggestive of higher prices and larger transactions next week. There were no important rumors in circulation, but advices received from New York expressed great confidence that an upward movement was to be looked for.

Speculators as well as investment stocks advanced, while Mobile & Ohio gained 1/2 to 22; Chicago, St. Louis & New Orleans 1 to 25; Milwaukee 2 to 26; Erie 4 to 43; Burlington & Quincy 2 to 24; Rock Island 4 to 1084; Alton 2 to 12; C. C. & I. 2 to 64; New York Central 1 to 104; Michigan Central 1 to 95; Lake Shore 1 to 104; Erie preferred 4 to 11; St. Paul 4 to 40; West Coast 4 to 37; the preferred K. & N. 2 to 64; Ohio 2 to 364; St. Joe 3 to 35; the preferred N. to 74; Kansas & Texas 1 to 375; Hudson 2 to 77; Lackawanna 2 to 40; Jersey Central 1 to 70; Manhattan 2 to 30; Union Pacific 2 to 112; Lake Superior 2 to 50; Western Union 2 to 104; Lake Erie 2 to 30; Canada Southern 2 to 61; Northern Pacific, preferred 4 to 46; Columbus, Chicago & Indiana Central 163; St. Paul & Omaha 1 to 41; the preferred 2 to 754.

Louisville & Nashville lost 4 to 12; Reading 4 to 174; Pacific Mail 4 to 414.

Ernestine was up 10 to 135, ranged between 903 and 914, and closed at 908.

Railroad bonds in New York on Thursday were strong and active, the majority of the leading issues showing an advance on the day's transactions. Erie consolidated second from 90 to 90, reacted to 90%, and recovered to 90%; Kansas & Texas second sold up from 64 to 65; Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe 10 to 104; C. & I. 10 to 65; Cedar & Fulton firsts from 90 to 110; Cairo & Texas firsts from 1014 to 103; Denver & Rio Grande firsts from 102 to 104; do constructions from 90 to 91%; International & Great Northern firsts from 100 to 1004; Lafayette, Bloomington & Muncie firsts 90 to 91; Milwaukee firsts from 90 to 91; Peoria, Indiana, firsts from 90 to 91; Lehigh & Western firsts from 100 to 100%; New Jersey Central adjustments from 107 to 107.

Government bonds were more active, especially the District of Columbia. District of Columbia 3.65 was 99 bid and 103 asked; the 4.18, 103 bid and 105 asked; the 4.15, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.12, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.8, 104, ex. interest bid and 104 asked.

Foreign exchange was heavy. Sterling posted rates were 483/4 and 481; actual rates were 482/4 and 485, and sterling commercial 480. For francs posted rates were 523/4 and 531/4 for Paris; Canadian francs were 629/4 for Paris, 527/4 for Havre and 525/4 for Quebec; Marks were 59/4 and 59/4 for posted, 59/4 for documentary, Holland, 50/4 for sight; Austrian florins, 41/4; Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, 27/4.

Chicago bank clearings were $4,300,000. Business at the banks was dull, and the demand for loans sluggish at 4.60 per cent on call and 6.68 per cent for 30 days, and the demand for currency was light. New York exchange sold between 50/4 and 51/4, and Metropolitan firsts from 100 to 100%; New Jersey Central adjustments from 107 to 107.

Government bonds were more active, especially the District of Columbia. District of Columbia 3.65 was 99 bid and 103 asked; the 4.18, 103 bid and 105 asked; the 4.15, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.12, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.8, 104, ex. interest bid and 104 asked.

Foreign exchange was heavy. Sterling posted rates were 483/4 and 481; actual rates were 482/4 and 485, and sterling commercial 480. For francs posted rates were 523/4 and 531/4 for Paris; Canadian francs were 629/4 for Paris, 527/4 for Havre and 525/4 for Quebec; Marks were 59/4 and 59/4 for posted, 59/4 for documentary, Holland, 50/4 for sight; Austrian florins, 41/4; Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, 27/4.

Chicago bank clearings were $4,300,000. Business at the banks was dull, and the demand for loans sluggish at 4.60 per cent on call and 6.68 per cent for 30 days, and the demand for currency was light. New York exchange sold between 50/4 and 51/4, and Metropolitan firsts from 100 to 100%; New Jersey Central adjustments from 107 to 107.

Government bonds were more active, especially the District of Columbia. District of Columbia 3.65 was 99 bid and 103 asked; the 4.18, 103 bid and 105 asked; the 4.15, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.12, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.8, 104, ex. interest bid and 104 asked.

Foreign exchange was heavy. Sterling posted rates were 483/4 and 481; actual rates were 482/4 and 485, and sterling commercial 480. For francs posted rates were 523/4 and 531/4 for Paris; Canadian francs were 629/4 for Paris, 527/4 for Havre and 525/4 for Quebec; Marks were 59/4 and 59/4 for posted, 59/4 for documentary, Holland, 50/4 for sight; Austrian florins, 41/4; Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, 27/4.

Chicago bank clearings were $4,300,000. Business at the banks was dull, and the demand for loans sluggish at 4.60 per cent on call and 6.68 per cent for 30 days, and the demand for currency was light. New York exchange sold between 50/4 and 51/4, and Metropolitan firsts from 100 to 100%; New Jersey Central adjustments from 107 to 107.

Government bonds were more active, especially the District of Columbia. District of Columbia 3.65 was 99 bid and 103 asked; the 4.18, 103 bid and 105 asked; the 4.15, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.12, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.8, 104, ex. interest bid and 104 asked.

Foreign exchange was heavy. Sterling posted rates were 483/4 and 481; actual rates were 482/4 and 485, and sterling commercial 480. For francs posted rates were 523/4 and 531/4 for Paris; Canadian francs were 629/4 for Paris, 527/4 for Havre and 525/4 for Quebec; Marks were 59/4 and 59/4 for posted, 59/4 for documentary, Holland, 50/4 for sight; Austrian florins, 41/4; Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, 27/4.

Chicago bank clearings were $4,300,000. Business at the banks was dull, and the demand for loans sluggish at 4.60 per cent on call and 6.68 per cent for 30 days, and the demand for currency was light. New York exchange sold between 50/4 and 51/4, and Metropolitan firsts from 100 to 100%; New Jersey Central adjustments from 107 to 107.

Government bonds were more active, especially the District of Columbia. District of Columbia 3.65 was 99 bid and 103 asked; the 4.18, 103 bid and 105 asked; the 4.15, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.12, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.8, 104, ex. interest bid and 104 asked.

Foreign exchange was heavy. Sterling posted rates were 483/4 and 481; actual rates were 482/4 and 485, and sterling commercial 480. For francs posted rates were 523/4 and 531/4 for Paris; Canadian francs were 629/4 for Paris, 527/4 for Havre and 525/4 for Quebec; Marks were 59/4 and 59/4 for posted, 59/4 for documentary, Holland, 50/4 for sight; Austrian florins, 41/4; Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, 27/4.

Chicago bank clearings were $4,300,000. Business at the banks was dull, and the demand for loans sluggish at 4.60 per cent on call and 6.68 per cent for 30 days, and the demand for currency was light. New York exchange sold between 50/4 and 51/4, and Metropolitan firsts from 100 to 100%; New Jersey Central adjustments from 107 to 107.

Government bonds were more active, especially the District of Columbia. District of Columbia 3.65 was 99 bid and 103 asked; the 4.18, 103 bid and 105 asked; the 4.15, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.12, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.8, 104, ex. interest bid and 104 asked.

Foreign exchange was heavy. Sterling posted rates were 483/4 and 481; actual rates were 482/4 and 485, and sterling commercial 480. For francs posted rates were 523/4 and 531/4 for Paris; Canadian francs were 629/4 for Paris, 527/4 for Havre and 525/4 for Quebec; Marks were 59/4 and 59/4 for posted, 59/4 for documentary, Holland, 50/4 for sight; Austrian florins, 41/4; Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, 27/4.

Chicago bank clearings were $4,300,000. Business at the banks was dull, and the demand for loans sluggish at 4.60 per cent on call and 6.68 per cent for 30 days, and the demand for currency was light. New York exchange sold between 50/4 and 51/4, and Metropolitan firsts from 100 to 100%; New Jersey Central adjustments from 107 to 107.

Government bonds were more active, especially the District of Columbia. District of Columbia 3.65 was 99 bid and 103 asked; the 4.18, 103 bid and 105 asked; the 4.15, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.12, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.8, 104, ex. interest bid and 104 asked.

Foreign exchange was heavy. Sterling posted rates were 483/4 and 481; actual rates were 482/4 and 485, and sterling commercial 480. For francs posted rates were 523/4 and 531/4 for Paris; Canadian francs were 629/4 for Paris, 527/4 for Havre and 525/4 for Quebec; Marks were 59/4 and 59/4 for posted, 59/4 for documentary, Holland, 50/4 for sight; Austrian florins, 41/4; Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, 27/4.

Chicago bank clearings were $4,300,000. Business at the banks was dull, and the demand for loans sluggish at 4.60 per cent on call and 6.68 per cent for 30 days, and the demand for currency was light. New York exchange sold between 50/4 and 51/4, and Metropolitan firsts from 100 to 100%; New Jersey Central adjustments from 107 to 107.

Government bonds were more active, especially the District of Columbia. District of Columbia 3.65 was 99 bid and 103 asked; the 4.18, 103 bid and 105 asked; the 4.15, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.12, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.8, 104, ex. interest bid and 104 asked.

Foreign exchange was heavy. Sterling posted rates were 483/4 and 481; actual rates were 482/4 and 485, and sterling commercial 480. For francs posted rates were 523/4 and 531/4 for Paris; Canadian francs were 629/4 for Paris, 527/4 for Havre and 525/4 for Quebec; Marks were 59/4 and 59/4 for posted, 59/4 for documentary, Holland, 50/4 for sight; Austrian florins, 41/4; Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, 27/4.

Chicago bank clearings were $4,300,000. Business at the banks was dull, and the demand for loans sluggish at 4.60 per cent on call and 6.68 per cent for 30 days, and the demand for currency was light. New York exchange sold between 50/4 and 51/4, and Metropolitan firsts from 100 to 100%; New Jersey Central adjustments from 107 to 107.

Government bonds were more active, especially the District of Columbia. District of Columbia 3.65 was 99 bid and 103 asked; the 4.18, 103 bid and 105 asked; the 4.15, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.12, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.8, 104, ex. interest bid and 104 asked.

Foreign exchange was heavy. Sterling posted rates were 483/4 and 481; actual rates were 482/4 and 485, and sterling commercial 480. For francs posted rates were 523/4 and 531/4 for Paris; Canadian francs were 629/4 for Paris, 527/4 for Havre and 525/4 for Quebec; Marks were 59/4 and 59/4 for posted, 59/4 for documentary, Holland, 50/4 for sight; Austrian florins, 41/4; Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, 27/4.

Chicago bank clearings were $4,300,000. Business at the banks was dull, and the demand for loans sluggish at 4.60 per cent on call and 6.68 per cent for 30 days, and the demand for currency was light. New York exchange sold between 50/4 and 51/4, and Metropolitan firsts from 100 to 100%; New Jersey Central adjustments from 107 to 107.

Government bonds were more active, especially the District of Columbia. District of Columbia 3.65 was 99 bid and 103 asked; the 4.18, 103 bid and 105 asked; the 4.15, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.12, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.8, 104, ex. interest bid and 104 asked.

Foreign exchange was heavy. Sterling posted rates were 483/4 and 481; actual rates were 482/4 and 485, and sterling commercial 480. For francs posted rates were 523/4 and 531/4 for Paris; Canadian francs were 629/4 for Paris, 527/4 for Havre and 525/4 for Quebec; Marks were 59/4 and 59/4 for posted, 59/4 for documentary, Holland, 50/4 for sight; Austrian florins, 41/4; Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, 27/4.

Chicago bank clearings were $4,300,000. Business at the banks was dull, and the demand for loans sluggish at 4.60 per cent on call and 6.68 per cent for 30 days, and the demand for currency was light. New York exchange sold between 50/4 and 51/4, and Metropolitan firsts from 100 to 100%; New Jersey Central adjustments from 107 to 107.

Government bonds were more active, especially the District of Columbia. District of Columbia 3.65 was 99 bid and 103 asked; the 4.18, 103 bid and 105 asked; the 4.15, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.12, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.8, 104, ex. interest bid and 104 asked.

Foreign exchange was heavy. Sterling posted rates were 483/4 and 481; actual rates were 482/4 and 485, and sterling commercial 480. For francs posted rates were 523/4 and 531/4 for Paris; Canadian francs were 629/4 for Paris, 527/4 for Havre and 525/4 for Quebec; Marks were 59/4 and 59/4 for posted, 59/4 for documentary, Holland, 50/4 for sight; Austrian florins, 41/4; Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, 27/4.

Chicago bank clearings were $4,300,000. Business at the banks was dull, and the demand for loans sluggish at 4.60 per cent on call and 6.68 per cent for 30 days, and the demand for currency was light. New York exchange sold between 50/4 and 51/4, and Metropolitan firsts from 100 to 100%; New Jersey Central adjustments from 107 to 107.

Government bonds were more active, especially the District of Columbia. District of Columbia 3.65 was 99 bid and 103 asked; the 4.18, 103 bid and 105 asked; the 4.15, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.12, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.8, 104, ex. interest bid and 104 asked.

Foreign exchange was heavy. Sterling posted rates were 483/4 and 481; actual rates were 482/4 and 485, and sterling commercial 480. For francs posted rates were 523/4 and 531/4 for Paris; Canadian francs were 629/4 for Paris, 527/4 for Havre and 525/4 for Quebec; Marks were 59/4 and 59/4 for posted, 59/4 for documentary, Holland, 50/4 for sight; Austrian florins, 41/4; Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, 27/4.

Chicago bank clearings were $4,300,000. Business at the banks was dull, and the demand for loans sluggish at 4.60 per cent on call and 6.68 per cent for 30 days, and the demand for currency was light. New York exchange sold between 50/4 and 51/4, and Metropolitan firsts from 100 to 100%; New Jersey Central adjustments from 107 to 107.

Government bonds were more active, especially the District of Columbia. District of Columbia 3.65 was 99 bid and 103 asked; the 4.18, 103 bid and 105 asked; the 4.15, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.12, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.8, 104, ex. interest bid and 104 asked.

Foreign exchange was heavy. Sterling posted rates were 483/4 and 481; actual rates were 482/4 and 485, and sterling commercial 480. For francs posted rates were 523/4 and 531/4 for Paris; Canadian francs were 629/4 for Paris, 527/4 for Havre and 525/4 for Quebec; Marks were 59/4 and 59/4 for posted, 59/4 for documentary, Holland, 50/4 for sight; Austrian florins, 41/4; Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, 27/4.

Chicago bank clearings were $4,300,000. Business at the banks was dull, and the demand for loans sluggish at 4.60 per cent on call and 6.68 per cent for 30 days, and the demand for currency was light. New York exchange sold between 50/4 and 51/4, and Metropolitan firsts from 100 to 100%; New Jersey Central adjustments from 107 to 107.

Government bonds were more active, especially the District of Columbia. District of Columbia 3.65 was 99 bid and 103 asked; the 4.18, 103 bid and 105 asked; the 4.15, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.12, 110 bid and 112 asked; the 4.8, 104, ex. interest bid and 104 asked.

Foreign exchange was heavy. Sterling posted rates were 483/4 and 481; actual rates were 482/4 and 485, and sterling commercial 480. For francs posted rates were 523/4 and 531/4 for Paris; Canadian francs were 629/4 for Paris, 527/4 for Havre and 525/4 for Quebec; Marks were 59/4 and 59/4 for posted, 59/4 for documentary, Holland, 50/4 for sight; Austrian florins, 41/4; Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, 27/4.

Chicago bank clearings were $4,300,000. Business at the banks was dull, and the demand for loans sluggish at 4.

BASE-BALL.

Eighth Consecutive Victory of Chicago Over Troy—Score 11 to 4.

The White Stockings Now Have a Lead of Fifteen Games Over All.

Cleveland Beaten by Worcester, Buffalo by Providence, and Cincinnati by Boston.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

The week just closed has been full of changes in the championship race, Chicago at one time reaching forward to a lead of fifteen games, won, then dropping back to fourteen, and by yesterday's victory at Troy regaining fifteen, the highest point reached. The two games won by Cleveland over Chicago, together with the defeats sustained by Providence at Troy, gave the Forest City team for a time a clear lead of one game for second place, but, being beaten by Worcester yesterday, while Providence was unsuccessful at Buffalo, has brought Cleveland back abreast with its rival. Worcester has won four place clearly over Boston by two games, while Buffalo and Troy are a tie for fifth, with Buffalo only one game behind them. This week Chicago has one game with Troy and three with Worcester; Cleveland meets Worcester once more, and Troy in three games; while Providence has an easier road to travel, having one game with Buffalo and three with Cincinnati. The standing of the different Clubs at the close of yesterday's play was as follows:

CLUBS.	Chicago	Cleveland	Worcester	Troy	Providence	Boston	Cincinnati
Games lost.	5	18	19	22	25	26	17
Score.	18	23	25	26	28	29	17
Points.	72	105	105	105	105	105	105

CHICAGO VS. TROY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune. Troy, N. Y., July 17.—The Chicagoans again demonstrated to-day that they are heavy hitters. They took very kindly to Welch's delivery, hitting him for eighteen hits. The score of the Chicagoans was only kept down to 11 by fielding. The Troys were unable to hit for home until the sixth inning, and it looked for a time that Troy would be shut out for the first time this season.

THE SCORE.

	A	B	R	T	F	E
Troy.	4	0	0	0	1	0	0
Garrison, L. F.	4	1	1	3	3	0	0
McGraw, F. L.	3	1	1	1	2	0	0
Conors, S. J.	4	1	1	3	1	0	0
Wells, T.	3	1	1	1	2	0	0
Cincinnati.	1	1	1	2	2	0	0
Total.	22	4	9	27	14	5
Chicago.	5	2	4	6	20	1	0
Daly, J. F.	5	2	4	6	20	1	0
Williamson, C.	5	2	4	6	20	1	0
Conor, J.	5	1	1	0	4	0	0
Wells, T.	3	1	1	1	2	0	0
McGraw, F. L.	3	1	1	1	2	0	0
Total.	44	11	18	27	14	2

GRUBBING FOR ASSETS.

Sam. Walker's Receiver Trying to Unravel His Financial Complications. A bill was filed Saturday in the Circuit Court by Robert E. Jenkins, Assignee in bankruptcy of Samuel J. Walker, against the Commercial National Bank of Chicago, the National City Bank of Ottawa, Henry T. Eames, J. H. Rees, George L. Ols, and the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company for the purpose of unraveling some of Walker's very complicated transactions. Troy and Cincinnati did not play their series in the latter city, and Troy won. The Times was in error in saying that Chicago and Worcester were the only teams to have not won their series to date. The score of Worcester's appearance in Chicago, Troy had not then and has not yet been blanketed for nine innings. The whitewash score stands as follows: Chicago, 1; Cleveland, 6; Providence, 2; Worcester, 2; Boston, 7; Buffalo, 6; Cincinnati, 6; Troy, 6.

WITNESSES—TROY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune. Worcester, Mass., July 17.—Again the Worcesterans outlasted and outfielded the Clevelanders, and this time they won the game. Richmond's pitching was very effective, and his fielding support was brilliant. The Clevelanders' solitary one was obtained by Hankinson, who struck a hot ball which hit Richmond in the leg. In attempting to field it to first, Richmond threw wild and Hankinson came home. Muffs by Haulon in the third inning gave the Worcesterans three runs, and Stovey's home run hit to centre-field in the sixth brought in three more. The last run was earned by Wood's two-bagger, his fourth safe hit of the game, and Cremer's single. McGeary, of the Providence team, has signed with the Clevelanders, and Dorgan, late of the Alpines, with the Worcesterans. The latter will be right field until Knight recovers. The

WITNESSES—WORCESTER.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune. Worcester, Mass., July 17.—Again the Worcesterans outlasted and outfielded the Clevelanders, and this time they won the game. Richmond's pitching was very effective, and his fielding support was brilliant. The Clevelanders' solitary one was obtained by Hankinson, who struck a hot ball which hit Richmond in the leg. In attempting to field it to first, Richmond threw wild and Hankinson came home. Muffs by Haulon in the third inning gave the Worcesterans three runs, and Stovey's home run hit to centre-field in the sixth brought in three more. The last run was earned by Wood's two-bagger, his fourth safe hit of the game, and Cremer's single. McGeary, of the Providence team, has signed with the Clevelanders, and Dorgan, late of the Alpines, with the Worcesterans. The latter will be right field until Knight recovers. The

WITNESSES—BUFFALO.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune. Providence, R. I., July 17.—The Buffaloans defeated the Buffaloes to-day by a score of 5 to 2, as follows:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total
Buffalo.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	5
Worcester.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	2
Score.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	5
Points.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	20
Buffalo.	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	5
Worcester.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	5
Total.	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	20

BOSTON VS. CINCINNATI.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune. Boston, Mass., July 17.—The Bostonians defeated the Cincinnati to 4 to 2. Following is the score:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total
Boston.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	1
Cincinnati.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	20
Score.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Points.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	20
Boston.	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1
Cincinnati.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Total.	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1

BOSTON VS. CINCINNATI.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune. Boston, Mass., July 17.—The Bostonians defeated the Cincinnati to 4 to 2. Following is the score:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total
Boston.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	1
Cincinnati.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	20
Score.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Points.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	20
Boston.	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1
Cincinnati.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Total.	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1

BALTIMORE—ALBANY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune. Albany, July 17.—Albany—7; Rochester—4.

BALTIMORE—NEW YORK.

The P. E. Elliott & Co. beat the Dwight Bros. & Co. yesterday 11 to 0.

The Bradner, Smith & Co. beat the Clarke, Fox & Co. yesterday 8 to 4.

Walker, the Buffalo first-base-man, has been released, and Esterbrook is playing the bats.

In the forty-three games played by Chicago last year Corcoran has pitched in twenty-six and Goldsmith in seventeen.

A game between Richele & Dijck's has been beaten from H. Schutte's and A. S. & T. P. Randolf's S. 13 to 8 and 22 to 11, respectively.

Foley, of the Bostonians, has been temporarily suspended for making a fluff because his team salary is still unpaid. And yet they talk about the financial solidity of the Boston Club!

The new nine is suggested by a correspondent, who asks an opinion as to whether it could be the strongest, and where it could be strengthened: Kelly, c. e. Ward, p. J. H. Conner, s. D. Philp, s. J. G. Williams, s. J. Connor, and F. T. G. Gore, respectively.

We should say this nine could be materially strengthened by the substitution of Corcoran for Ward as pitcher, of Flint for Kelly as catcher, of Kelly for Clapp in right field, and of Burns for Connors as short stop. In fact, as nine for winning games, the present Chicago team is vastly preferable.

Joe Quest was stuck for $100 in Cleveland last week on an old debt owing to a Meadville man who advanced him the money several years ago to start a cigar store. Quest settled the debt and Quest was going to jail.

The Clipper says: "The Chicago plan of picking the players alternately is a good one. With the hard work our pitchers have to attend to, playing in every game, is much of a strain. Look at the effects of it on McGeary, Keefe, Richmond, Ward, etc. Three pitchers are not too many to have in a first-class team."

The Worcester Spy says: "President Huller, of the Chicago Club, is the best-pastor in the country on all matters pertaining to base-ball, and the business management of clubs and him are the best. The mail authorities put together is the public's indebted for the respectability of the game as played by professionals. Having emancipated the game from the gamblers, he profits from the public's interest in the game, and the sale of liquor and beer will be removed from every League ground in the country. He likes young blood, shuns old fakers at old foggies, and wants the game so much that it will be self-sustaining."

A curious complaint has arisen in connection with the Chicago game, and it is the same as the one that was made by Worcester yesterday, while Providence was successful at Buffalo, has brought Cleveland back abreast with its rival. Worcester has won four place clearly over Boston by two games, while Buffalo and Troy are a tie for fifth, with Buffalo only one game behind them. This week Chicago has one game with Troy and three with Worcester; Cleveland meets Worcester once more, and Troy in three games; while Providence has an easier road to travel, having one game with Buffalo and three with Cincinnati. The standing of the different Clubs at the close of yesterday's play was as follows:

of Corcoran for Ward as pitcher, of Flint for Kelly as catcher, of Kelly for Clapp in right field, and of Burns for Connors as short stop. In fact, as nine for winning games, the present Chicago team is vastly preferable.

Joe Quest was stuck for $100 in Cleveland last week on an old debt owing to a Meadville man who advanced him the money several years ago to start a cigar store. Quest settled the debt and Quest was going to jail.

The Clipper says: "The Chicago plan of picking the players alternately is a good one. With the hard work our pitchers have to attend to, playing in every game, is much of a strain. Look at the effects of it on McGeary, Keefe, Richmond, Ward, etc. Three pitchers are not too many to have in a first-class team."

The Worcester Spy says: "President Huller, of the Chicago Club, is the best-pastor in the country on all matters pertaining to base-ball, and the business management of clubs and him are the best. The mail authorities put together is the public's indebted for the respectability of the game as played by professionals. Having emancipated the game from the gamblers, he profits from the public's interest in the game, and the sale of liquor and beer will be removed from every League ground in the country. He likes young blood, shuns old fakers at old foggies, and wants the game so much that it will be self-sustaining."

A curious complaint has arisen in connection with the Chicago game, and it is the same as the one that was made by Worcester yesterday, while Providence was successful at Buffalo, has brought Cleveland back abreast with its rival. Worcester has won four place clearly over Boston by two games, while Buffalo and Troy are a tie for fifth, with Buffalo only one game behind them. This week Chicago has one game with Troy and three with Worcester; Cleveland meets Worcester once more, and Troy in three games; while Providence has an easier road to travel, having one game with Buffalo and three with Cincinnati. The standing of the different Clubs at the close of yesterday's play was as follows:

GERMANY.

Foot-Trips by an American in "the Fatherland."

Along the Mulde—Martin Luther and Katharina von Bora.

Country-Girls and Their Strength—Hardships of Women of the Poor Classes.

A Village on an Island—The Ancient Fortress of Mildenstein.

Special Correspondence of The Chicago Tribune.

LEIPZIG, Germany, July 18, 1880.—Leaving town early of a summer-morning, before the heat becomes oppressive, and taking a south-easterly direction, I accomplish about seven-tenths of my journey in three hours and fifty-one minutes, to the great surprise of some Germans whom I chance to meet upon my arrival at a diminutive provincial city, of I dare say, 20,000 inhabitants. These good people assure me that the distance is never walked in less than six hours. The little hotel in which I go for a nap and dinner is an excellent specimen of the more respectable inns to be found in these quiet countrysides. "It is the best, and is patronized by the cavalry-soldiers of the garrison station here. Several of the ladies are still at the breakfast-table, with mug and cigarette, their horses waiting outside; one or, two excellent dogs asleep at their feet, under the table. The landlady knows me, and that I always come on foot. Last night I sent her a postal card, and to-day she is standing in the wide porch as I come up the walk, and asks how long it took me to walk the stretch, with as much interest as if she had bet upon some pedestrian of note. She says that she, too, used to go to Leipzig on foot when she was a girl, before the era of railroads; and she thinks her own girls would not be so "delicate-like"—they perhaps weight a hundred and seventy pounds apiece if they had to do the same. She is very motherly, closes all the windows, and no draught may reach in, and she goes out to cook dinner, and she does cook me a better one than most old ladies of 60 would be likely to do. Both she and her buxom daughters appear to think an American is liable to go to pieces in some way after walking twenty miles, unless he is very carefully tended.

It is a low-studded room in which I dine, and the windows are set in deep alcoves, shaded by trees and vines in a tiny garden outside. In the alcoves and all about the walls there are huge leather sofas, with foot-rests in front, and little coffee-tables beside them, where only a mortal of greater than human wisdom could resist a cigar and a day-dream.

This city lies on the Mulde, a river along which we shall have to ascend for a number of miles, and which furnishes a great deal of very romantic scenery. As in the case of the Rhine, the Mulde's picturesqueness, too, is much diminished by a railway, which the present generation—so impatient of slow traveling—has built on its banks. Crossing the curious covered wooden bridge, I skirt along the edge of the stream, sometimes near the water's level, sometimes across the hills and through the beautiful blue-wood which borders the river for miles. A little above the town I cross again to the other shore, on a pontoon bridge, paying a groschen toll. Taking the road to the left, I climb the turnpike between the tall pines till we strike a path leading through the fields back to the river, and we are in the process of time to a tiny little village on an island in the river, that I could only reach by crossing a suspension-bridge so long and narrow that it swayed and groaned over the overhanging water, and out of two sturdy, red-cheeked peasant-girls with whom I had struck up an acquaintance on the way, and who were carrying on their backs a couple of bags filled with corn, we are soon in the sight of which would a fear, arose the indignation of most American girls. These girls seem not to mind such things, however, only getting their checks the easiest and most plump for it. I have often gone along with some of them for miles, they shouldering at least a hundred and seventy pounds apiece.

A certain chivalrous young man here (not much acquainted with European customs), meeting a damsel on one of these large boats, and, after a few words, offered his manly generosity, to help her carry it—a proposal which so astonished the young woman that for once in her life she almost fainted. But to my great relief, she so firmly believed that the young man's only object could be to steal her property, that she is said nearly to have broken his back, being a tall man in the presence of the fair, and have never been in such danger.

MARTIN LUTHER. For it was here, in this little inclosure where the fair used to stand, that Katharina von Bora, his first wife, was born. At all events, she escaped from here with eight of her sister-nuns—carried off, I believe, in barrels on a countryman's wagon. You may easily see a well-made, bold, and determined woman with her monkish knight. It is only to be regretted that the story, pretty as it sounds, is but half true, since history, stern and unromantic, tells us that the knight was a Wittenberg after Katharina's flight from here.

Of course I am speaking of Grimma. Well, the days of knightly honor and sufferings—most especially, however, of poverty—are long since gone, for Germany at least. So we will leave the poetry and take the prose—which means the dusty turnpike for a mile or two, till we strike a path leading through the fields back to the river, and we are in the process of time to a tiny little village on an island in the river, that I could only reach by crossing a suspension-bridge so long and narrow that it swayed and groaned over the overhanging water, and out of two sturdy, red-cheeked peasant-girls with whom I had struck up an acquaintance on the way, and who were carrying on their backs a couple of bags filled with corn, we are soon in the sight of which would a fear, arose the indignation of most American girls. These girls seem not to mind such things, however, only getting their checks the easiest and most plump for it. I have often gone along with some of them for miles, they shouldering at least a hundred and seventy pounds apiece.

A certain chivalrous young man here (not much acquainted with European customs), meeting a damsel on one of these large boats, and, after a few words, offered his manly generosity, to help her carry it—a proposal which so astonished the young woman that for once in her life she almost fainted. But to my great relief, she so firmly believed that the young man's only object could be to steal her property, that she is said nearly to have broken his back, being a tall man in the presence of the fair, and have never been in such danger.

It is true that the women of the lower classes here have to put up with a good many hardships and carry all the loads, but I have often seen a woman with a dog, or with a dog or two, while their husbands ride comfortably and smoke their pipes. I never myself saw any of them positively ill-treated, but I know that they often get a bad time in the presence of the fair, and have never been in such danger.

It is true that the women of the lower classes here have to put up with a good many hardships and carry all the loads, but I have often seen a woman with a dog, or with a dog or two, while their husbands ride comfortably and smoke their pipes. I never myself saw any of them positively ill-treated, but I know that they often get a bad time in the presence of the fair, and have never been in such danger.

It is true that the women of the lower classes here have to put up with a good many hardships and carry all the loads, but I have often seen a woman with a dog, or with a dog or two, while their husbands ride comfortably and smoke their pipes. I never myself saw any of them positively ill-treated, but I know that they often get a bad time in the presence of the fair, and have never been in such danger.

THE LIONS OF THE TOWNS.—not very remarkable lions, to be sure. Yet one could hardly find a more romantic halting-place in the cool of the evening with a thirty miles' journey behind one. All about us, encircling us everywhere, is the beautiful Rhine, perhaps the most beautiful river in the world, the inevitable mill-wheel. The houses of the peasants, not over-clean here, but it matters little in the twilight— are almost hidden among the trees, between and about the houses, looking up through the slowly darkening sky the quaintly majestic little church, which alone was wanting to complete the air of perfect peace that reigns in the hamlet. I find an inn with a garden in the rear, and, as I am passing, immediately put me on good terms with my landlord, push back my chair against the wall, call for a mug of beer, and watch the red light fade as the sun sets. The world was still longer until my cigar was gone, and the moon comes up on the other side, out of the water, showing itself faintly through the foliage at first, then climbing up beyond into the clear spaces of the cloudy summer-night.

You smile, perhaps, at my simple mode of traveling! Take a cigar with me here in the moonlight, under the trees, beside the water. Let us take the landlord's shaky, worn-out boat, and paddle out into that broad belt of silver, shining there in the river. We are safe for a long time, without touching a stone. The stream, so savagely impatient of delay a few miles below, here is smooth and sluggish as a Southern lagoon. I for my own part, sat with my hands clasped in my lap, as I lay in the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS
comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS
comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS
comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS

comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS

comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS

comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS

comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS

comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS

comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS

comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS

comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS

comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS

comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS

comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS

comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS

comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS

comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS

comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS

comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard straw bed, under the naked rafters of my inn, as soundly as ever I slept in the Rue de Rivoli at Paris.

AN ANCIENT FORTRESS

comes in view, high up on a mountain of no commanding proportions, and the good old castle Muide, quite the look of the Rhine in bygone feudal days. (At least I imagine so.) I was not on the Rhine then. The castle, which I called Mildenstein, was built as far as I can remember, in the year 1045, in fact—it preserved its virginity (which means in respect of fortresses, as my gallant friend, the Major, tells me) for a whole century, as far as a countryman's wagon (always behind a party of good horses)—sometimes trudging along for a mile on the turnpike with a peasant woman, and sometimes silent in my hard

THE TURF.

The Great Trotting Meeting in Chicago This Week.

One Hundred and Sixty-three Flyers Engaged in the Various Stakes.

Some Mention of the Principal Ones in Each Event, and Their Records.

Inside Facts Regarding the Row Over the Pool-Box at Detroit—Track Talk, Etc.

THE CHICAGO MEETING.

Nearly everybody in the country who is interested in trotting will visit Chicago this week for the purpose of attending the great meeting which commences next Tuesday and continues without interruption during the week. That it will be a great meeting is beyond question, even of the year that left to be hoped for is not far wrong. With this assured, the Jockey Club can easily count on an average daily attendance of 10,000, and know before the gates were opened that the meeting was certain to prove a financial success. The stake system in trotting, which was inaugurated by the Club, has proved a much greater attraction than even its most ardent supporters had believed possible, these being in the eleven stakes and sixteen trotting races no less than 163 entries, something absolutely unapproached in the annals of trotting. And, what is better, nearly 90 per cent of the horses engaged are at the track and ready for the battles of the coming week, so that in every race there is certain to be a large field of starters. The odds are that the first 22 class horses of the starters that are known to be able to trot better than 2:24, and this is the case for some of the speedier ones. And this estimate of their powers is not based upon talk. There has been a large number of good trotting meetings this year than before, and at each one several new types have been discovered, and old canaries have gone. Those that are still in the race are from the first circuit, Maryland, D. C., the Mississippi, Quebec, Charles River, and will be in the first class.

The 2:20 class race includes Monroe, Chief, Fred, and the like. The 2:24 class race includes

Emilia, Tola Maid, George Judd, Lewinski, William H. Dean, Capt. Jack, Russ Ellis, and Warrior. For the 2:25 class race, the same horses, with the addition of the newly discovered, are the 2:26 class race.

The 2:27 class race includes Voltaire, Doty, Eddie Wright, Little Oliver, Rose of Cloud, and Wilbur F. Josephs, Troubadour, Eva, and Little Blackie, and the like.

Amber, Black Cloud, and Wilbur F. Josephs are entered in the 2:34 race.

Hub Gaffney has purchased from A. Belmont in Chicago now he could beat every trotter at the track.

Orvin Hickok thinks that if Santa Claus was in Chicago now he could beat every trotter at the track.

Adrian, K. K. Kenner, of Dubuque, Ia., is now a fixture at the track.

The 2:35 race is the first thing Friday.

Friday afternoon Mayor Harrison, Judge Glover, President of the Board of Canal Commissioners, and several other interested parties had a conference in the Mayor's office regarding the proposed pumping-works at Bridgeport, and the Mayor stated afterward that Judge Glover had informed him that the Canal Commissioners would not allow a lock to be put in the canal at Bridgeport until after the close of navigation. Last evening a reporter called on Judge Glover at his residence, No. 3000 Indiana avenue, and asked him whether the statement made by the Mayor was correct.

"Well," said the Judge, "I do not think Mayor Harrison quite understood the remark I made on that point, according to the statement made by the Mayor."

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that I supposed he could sink

the lock, but he would not be able to do it.

"I told him that

WANTED—MALE HELP.

Bookkeepers, Clerks, &c.
WANTED—A YOUNG MAN NOT OVER 20 years of age, to work in a warehouse, thoroughly acquainted with Chicago wholesale business-houses, of strictly temperate habits. Give address, and references. Apply to W. H. Merrill & Co., 27 North Clark-st.

WANTED—BOOKKEEPER. REQUIRES: HON-EST, CAPACIT, AND JUDGMENT. NO BOYS NED
APPLY. ADDRESS E. B. Tribune office.

WANTED—COOK IN SMALL CHOCKEY
HOME. Must have experience and speak German. WEINER & CO., 222 Division-st.

WANTED—FIRST-CLASS PENMAN FOR GEN-ERAL OFFICE WORK. Apply to Tribune office.

WANTED—COLLECTOR IN LAW OFFICE; MUST REFERENCES. E. B. Tribune office.

WANTED—AN EXPERIENCED SALESMAN IN
MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS; references. Inquire at J. SAM-
MON, corner Clinton and Madison-st.

WANTED—A WOMAN'S HOUSE-KEEPER. Woman, not married, office work; must be quick at figures and good penman. State references.
Address D. 6, Tribune office.

WANTED—A YOUNG MAN AS ENTRY CLERK
IN a manufacturing business and to make him
as generally useful as possible; one with experience;
good references. Apply to D. 6, Tribune office.

WANTED—A SMART, ENERGETIC SALESMAN;
permanent situation. Call Monday from 9 to 11 a.m. W. F. Winkler, 112 W. Madison-st.

WANTED—A YOUNG MAN, LIVING WITH HIS PARENTS, who can come well recommended; address 48 per week; also an eraser boy; make $2. Address D. 6, Tribune office.

WANTED—GROCERY CLERK, EXPERIENCED
but hand, good market, used to city trade.
State references. Apply to Tribune office.

WANTED—GOOD SALESMEN. APPLY AT Room 13, 214 Clark-st. WATSON & CO.

WANTED—A DRUG CLERK WHO SPEAKS
GERMAN. Apply to WILLIAM BAKER, 208
Arch-st.

WANTED—A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY SALESMAN;
one who can speak full German. Address D. 6, Tribune office, with references.

WANTED—A FEW MEDIUM YOUNG MEN, WID-LY experienced in the shoe business. Must be good reference as to ability and character required.
Address D. 6, Tribune office.

WANTED—AS SENIOR CLERK. AN EXPER-IENCED and thorough competent druggist. Best of references. Monday, 9 a.m. GLA-BART, 220 Twenty-second-st.

WANTED—A YOUNG MAN TO RUN SODA
HOUSE, in a small family; good wages paid;
no board. D. 6, Tribune office.

WANTED—STRONG BOY TO WORK IN FUR-NITURE store. Apply at 226 West Madison-st.

Trade.

WANTED—AN ENGLISHMAN TO TAKE CHARGE of two engines (one large and one small), seven steam-pumps of different builds, 1000 feet of steam and water pipes, and a large quantity of iron. Will be offered if after one month's trial he proves to be competent and strictly temperate; one who needs
no board. D. 6, Tribune office.

WANTED—A GOOD GIRL, PRACTICALLY a maid, to work in a general house. Address D. 6, Tribune office.

WANTED—A GOOD GIRL TO WORK IN A GENERAL HOUSE. Apply at 208 West Madison-st.

WANTED—A RELIABLE MAN AS FOREMAN. N.
Good reference as to ability and character required.
Address D. 6, Tribune office.

WANTED—HON. MEN TO WORK IN LUMBER
CO., THE WOODWARD COMPANY at Loomis
St., 200 Twenty-second-st.

WANTED—THREE TRUNKMAKERS. APPLY
TO CHAS. T. WILT, 164 State-st.

WANTED—A COOK FOR CAMPING PARTY FOR Colored, but no Irish. Apply at 38 West Jackson-son-st.

WANTED—A GERMAN GIRL TO COOK, WASH-
ING, IRON. Good wages. Apply at East 88th Street.

WANTED—A SECOND GIRL TO ASSIST WITH CLOTHING, IRONING, ETC. TO GO SOME DISTANCE
IN THE COUNTRY. Must have a good market. Call at 203 Michigan-st. Monday morning between 7 and 8 a.m.

WANTED—A GOOD GIRL TO DO GENERAL
housework for a family of four. A German or Swedish girl preferred. Apply at 208 Warren-st.

WANTED—A GOOD GIRL, WHO UNDER-STANDS cabinetmaking. Address D. 6, Tribune
office.

WANTED—TWO GOOD TRUNKMAKERS; ALSO
two good trunks—makers. Baskett Brothers, 160 N. Dearborn-st.

WANTED—PRACTICERS ON THREE HOUSES;
John Gaynor, 26 S. Sangamon-st., 7 a.m. or p.m.

WANTED—A WAX-THERMAL STITCHER OF
ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS. Apply to Tribune office.

WANTED—A FEW CARPENTERS ON TORONTO
CARRIAGE CO., 100 Dearborn and Market. Bring your tools.

WANTED—THREE FIRST-RATE PLOW-
GRINDERS and two good plow-polishers. Apply to 1500 Dearborn-st. Good wages paid. W. H. Webster Co., 800 Wabash-st.

WANTED—A GOOD BOY TO BEF RULING
machines. Apply to B. B. Barnes & Co., 60 Dearborn-st.

WANTED—A GERMAN, THOROUGHLY COM-PETENT to manufacture and take charge of vino-mines, liquors and salaried expected. Address D. 6, Tribune office.

WANTED—IMMEDIATELY—THREE FIRST-RATE CLOTHES-MAKERS, at JOHN B. GAVIN'S, corner Lake and Jefferson.

WANTED—TWO CLOTHES-MAKERS MONDAY MORNING
at St. Charles' Mill Skates.

WANTED—A SMART BOY TO BEF RULING
machines. Apply to B. B. Barnes & Co., 60 Dearborn-st.

WANTED—A FEW CARPENTERS ON TORONTO
CARRIAGE CO., 100 Dearborn and Market. Bring your tools.

WANTED—A GOOD GIRL, WHO UNDER-STANDS cabinetmaking. Address D. 6, Tribune
office.

WANTED—TWO GOOD PATTERNMAKERS, AP-PLIED TO THE AMERICAN WORKS, east of the Cathedral, Monday morning.

WANTED—FOUR PATTERNMAKERS AS FOURTY-FOURTH, first house west of Cottage corner.

WANTED—FIFTEEN COMPUTERISTS AT LEGAL NEWS
OFFICE, 6 Dearborn-st.

WANTED—A FIRST-CLASS COAT-THINNER
housework. Apply at 208 Wabash-st.

WANTED—A MIDDLE-AGED WOMAN TO DO
housework. Apply at 208 Wabash-st.

WANTED—A FIRST-CLASS BAKER, ONE WHO UNDERSTANDS the manufacture of Vienna bread;
to run a good bakery. Apply at 100 Dearborn-st.

WANTED—SEVERAL FIRST-CLASS BOILER-
MAKERS. Apply at SPRINGER'S Boiler-Shop,
100 Dearborn-st.

WANTED—YOUNG MAN WHO UNDER-STANDS cabinetmaking. Address D. 6, Tribune
office.

WANTED—TWO GOOD TRUNKMAKERS; ALSO
two good trunks—makers. Baskett Brothers, 160 N. Dearborn-st.

WANTED—SEVERAL AGENTS, FASTEST SELLING
SHIRT, &c., CO. 100 Dearborn-st.

WANTED—AGENTS TO TAKE ORDERS FOR GROCERIES, DRUGS, &c. Apply to Tribune office.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND SECOND
GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A GIRL, TO DO GENERAL HOUSE-
WORK, of a family of three. M. B. Davis, No.
225 Butterfield-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND
SECOND GIRL. Call Monday at 125 Prairie-st.

WANTED—A COMPETENT COOK AND SECOND GIRL

